ANNUAL STAFF

THIS 1998-99 ANNUAL STAFF HAS WORKED EXTREMELY HARD. THEY PUT IN MANY HARD LONG HOURS AFTER SCHOOL AND AT LUNCH INTO THIS BOOK. EVERYONE HAD CREATIVE MINDS WHEN IT CAME TO PUTTING THIS BOOK TOGETHER. THEY CAME UP WITH THE CAPTIONS, TYPED, TOOK MUG SHOTS, CUT OUT PICTURES, AND GLUED PICTURES ON PAPER. THANK YOU TO ALL WHO STAYED AN HOUR AFTER SCHOOL ALMOST EVERYDAY. A REALLY BIG THANKYOU TO MRS. MENLING FOR ALWAYS BEING THERE FOR US AND HELPING US WITH THE ANNUAL.

Reclining: Katie Koll, Elizabeth Paradise.

To be in the Winslow Jr. High National Honor Society a student needs a 3.5 grade average or higher, be a leader, have good character, and do services for others. This year NHS sponsored half of the school dances, sold concessions at all sports, sponsored secret teachers, and bought equipment for the school.

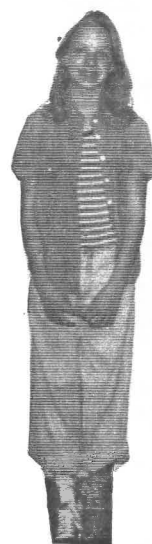

Student Council

Bottom Row: Geoff Bengson, Tiffany Sheets, Chelsea McKinney, Marissa Betony, Nikki Greer, Kim Flores, Elizabeth Paradise

This 1998-99 school year, our Student Council sponsored many events. They are two Spirit Weeks, R.I.F., Happy Day, Love Grams, Haunt-a-Grams, four dances, a fund raiser, a carwash, Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus, Santa pictures, Bowl for Kids Sake with Big Brothers and Big Sisters, The Eighth Grade Picnic, and bought some teachers equipment for our school. The students would have meetings every Tuesday and Thursday. They made some very important decisions. Mr. Hute is the sponsor.

This year the Cadet Band has the most musical talent than any previous Cadet Band and many previous Concert Bands. They played more advanced music than ever before. The Cadet Band played in three concerts, the Solo and Ensemble Contest, and at 8th grade graduation.

CHOIR

Members of the Honor Choir were Jessica Maldonado, Lindsey Revie, Amber Tafoya, Tessa Sadler, Jessica DuPree, Eran Herr, and Charlene Betts.

Though small, this choir had a big sound. Mr. Jauregui led them through a great year of singing. The choir performed in three concerts. They also participated in the Solo and Ensemble Festival, the Honor Music Festival, some solos for the Art Show, and "The Future of Tomorrow" at the 8th grade graduation.

Orchestra

The Orchestra class has done very well considering they received some new students and even a new conductor, Mr. Jason Baxter. The Orchestra has taken part in Solo & Ensemble, the Grand Canyon Music Festival, and sent David Noel, Steven Duffy, Heather Dobson, and Amy Lee to the Honor Orchestra in Blue Ridge. Mr. Baxter has given his students a new look on music with all of his new teaching techniques of different types of music.

8TH GRADE FOOTBALL

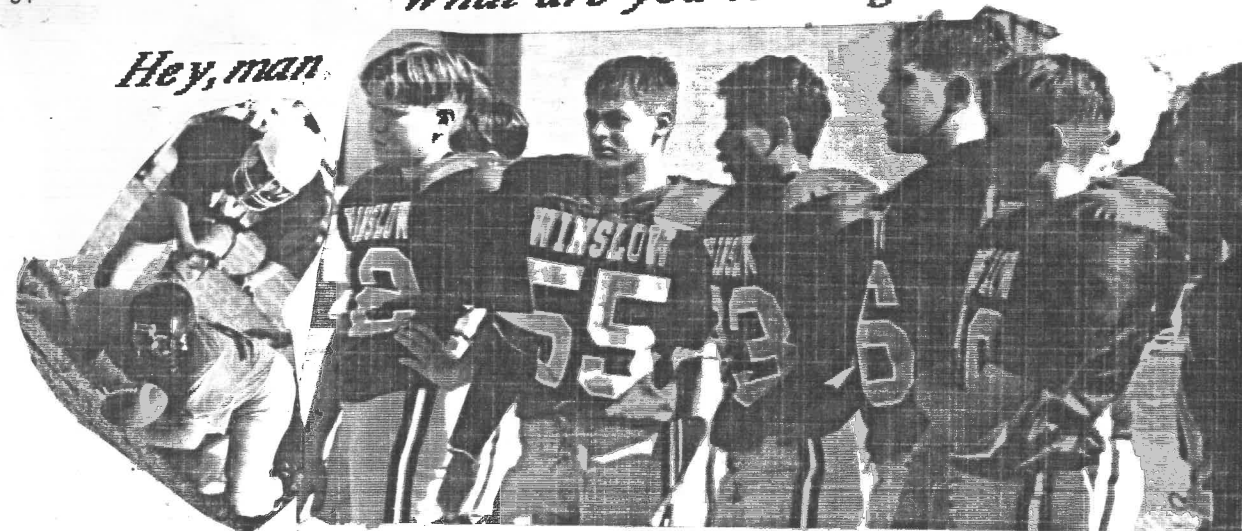

In 8th grade football, the Winslow Bulldogs ended the season 4-2. The team was tied for 2nd place with Round Valley and Payson took first place. These athletes have the potential to take state in the future. Coach Gilmore did a great job with the linemen and defense. There was no MVP but both of the coaches thought Brian Mitchell was all around in playing different positions. There were also other players that could have been picked. Both coaches are looking forward to seeing them succeed in the future.

What do we do now?

The 8th grade girls had a season record of 8-1. They won second place at their tournament. They dedicated the rest of their season to Coach Tancy Coughlin.

With a record of 4-2 the 8th grade volleyball team did a great job with their own styles and strengths. They practiced every day. When the team went to invitational in Holbrook, they took first place. They terminated the other teams. The players were Erica Armenta, Shirlene Bahe, Daphne Barton, Joanna Black, Julie Dixon, Jamie Lewis, Chantel Nez, Joanna Panana, Lindsey Revie, Kiki Silentwalker, Nicole Williams, Kelley Willie, and Dominique Yazzie. The managers were Mandy Baca and Brandee Maclean. The coach was Mrs. Stewart.

The wrestling season went very well. Most of the wrestlers had high spirits and good skills. The wrestling team had 25 wrestlers. In the tournament, Brian Mitchell, Steven Martinez, Seth Tanner, Craig Williams, Reed Hancock, and Avery Begay all took 2nd places.

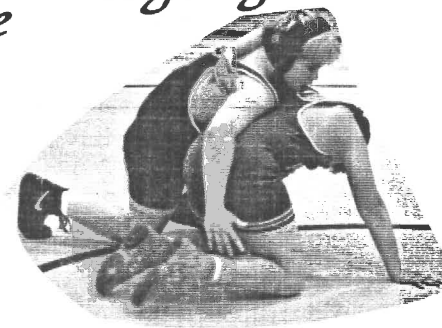

The people who finished best in the league were Seth Tanner who got 2nd place, Brian Mitchell who got 3rd place, and Jeff Murray who got 4th place. The team worked hard and tough and the wrestlers always stayed positive. They had a good luck song "On Top of Spaghetti." If they sang this they wrestled better. Next year Coach Gilmore wants the 7th graders to come back out and wrestle.

Congratulations, wrestlers and Coach Gilmore for earning the sportsmanship award at the White Mountain finals in Payson! "It was a good season" said Coach Gilmore.

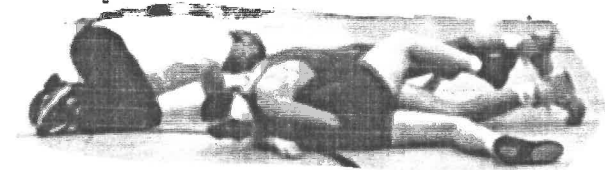

Get up, boy.

Come and get me I'm going to beat you

In 1918 at Hanover D. Cash Clinic, Dr. Dogsbreath Devereaux (Reed Hancock) and Nurse Hilda Hatchet (John Pate) are devising a plan to murder Lotta Cash (Joanna Black), for her fortune. Meanwhile Dr. Phil Good (Mark Rostedt) and Nurse Wendy March (Amy Lee) meet and fall in love. But they get into a argument because Trixi St. James (Erica Armenta) spilled the beans about Wendy being a dancer. Nurse Ivy Drupp (Jessica Moldanado) is also going through a break up because Trixi hit on her boyfriend Ward Helper (Tom Taylor). Later Ward makes up with Ivy and Trixie meets patient #6 (Zach Thomack). Then Tommi Gunn (Laura Duran), a law enforcement officer comes, in for a physical check up and meets the two criminals. The officer, not knowing they were telling the truth about themselves just went on her way. Then Dr. Devereaux found Nurse March spying on him and discovered their plans. He then drugged her and set her on a bed. Next Lotta came in with the minister Brother Sunbeam (Charles Gover) and everyone else for the wedding. They had just gotten married when Wendy woke up. Tommi caught and arrested Dr. Devereaux and Nurse Hatchet after a big struggle between every body. Dr. Good and Nurse March made up and planned to marry.

Some of the things Office Aides have to do is answer the phone and take messages when needed, deliver messages, pick up and/or deliver attendance, make copies, deliver bulletins, make bulletin boards, monitor the tardy board, handle students' check outs, and write admit slips. Office Aides must be responsible and aware at all times. An Office Aide occupies a position of trust. Also, Aides can not earn more than two F's. If they do, they will be dismissed from the position.

7TH GRADE FOOTBALL

You're going nowhere

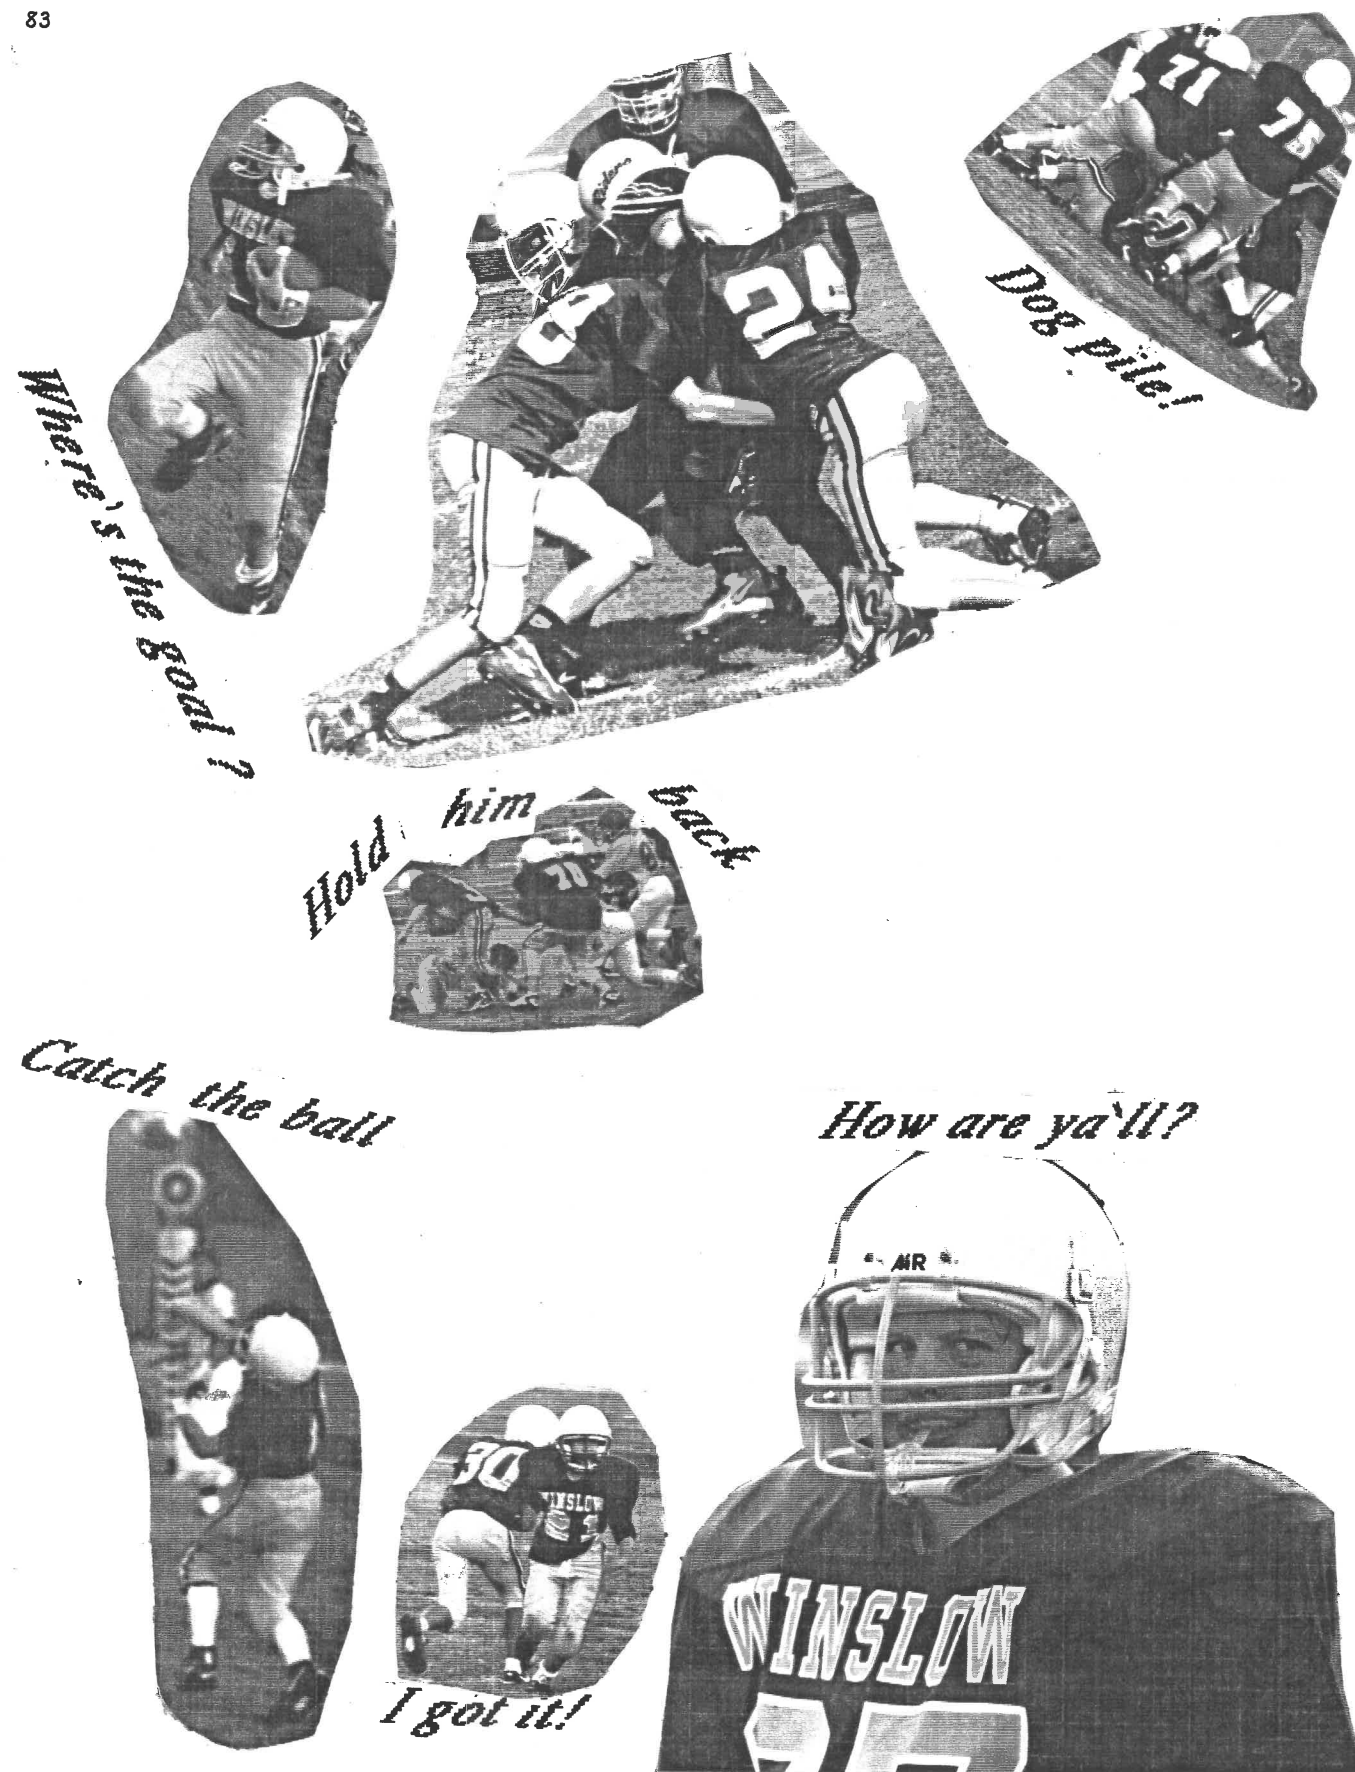

The 7th grade football team coach, Mr. Oso, said that the team was the best he has coached. "They are a very well disciplined team." He would also like to see a booster club for the junior high level. Mr. Oso did not have one MVP but several players who should and their names are Mikel Revie, Spencer Prosser, and Warren Prosser.

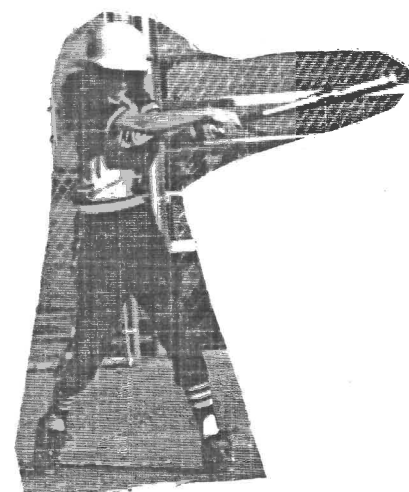

The 7th grade team was 4-2. One of the wins was on a forfeit. They played White River, Round Valley, Mogollon, and Holbrook. They only lost to Rim Country (Payson), and Show Low. The assistant coaches were Darral Smith and Jeremy Kanuho.

Front Row: Mgrs. Rachael Nabors, Stephenie Elson, Anthony Rogers, Geoff Bengson, Greg Creamer, Mark Spencer, Spencer Prosser, Ty Todacheenie, George Vasquez, Amanda Ackerman, Larissa Bratt, mgrs. Second Row: Mgr. Kelly Charley, Nathan Garner, Warren Prosser, Dustin Cole, David Barndollar, Richard Perez, Jeff McCauley, Kyle Curley, Michael Montiel, Damian Lomeli, Derek Joe mgr. Third Row: Coach Oso, Coach Smith, Gabe Jaramillo, Robert Duran, Michael Soehner, Norman Horn, Adam Reeves, David Noel, Mikel Revie, Jay Black, Donnell Flanagan, Merwin Dewitt.

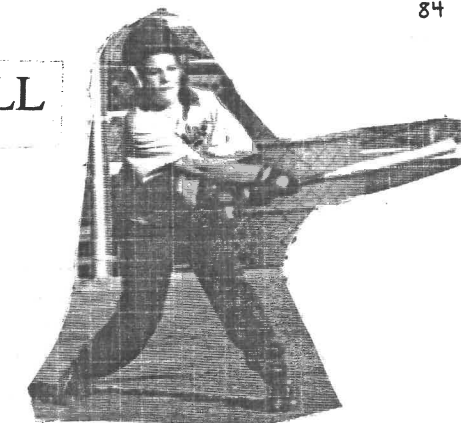

7TH GRADE SOFTBALL

ACADEMIC MATH AND SCIENCE DECATHLON

Front row: Mrs. Mitchell, James Gardner, Brad Miller, Amy Lee, Brandy MacLean
 2nd row: Mark Spencer, Zach Piepmeyer, Mrs. Mitchell
 3rd row: Emery Nez, Dwanna Crain, Stephanie Elson, Tiffany Sheets

The Math-Science Academic Decathlon team went to Alchesay March 5 and split up into groups. Each group had to solve problems and make different objects like airplanes and cars.

The History-Language Arts Academic Decathlon was during Winslow's spring break so no team went.

A DEDICATEE IS... MRS. WATSON

Dance!

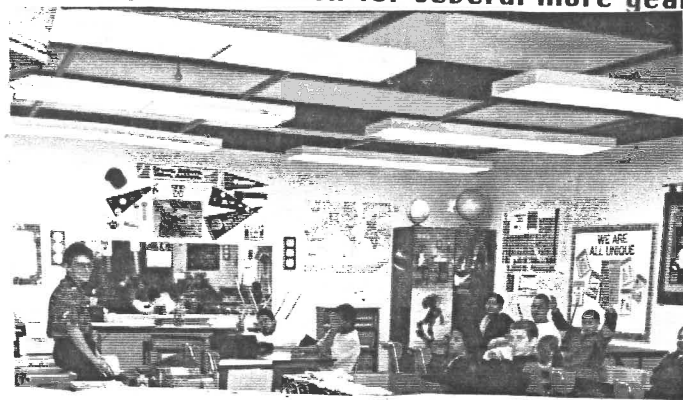

Workin' hard.

One of this year's dedicatees is Mrs. Donna Watson. She was going to college at NAU and got a call from Winslow asking her to teach. She has taught here 23 years now. She coached girls basketball between 1976-1981 and coached cheerleaders one year. She now teaches Family Consumer Science, Foundations Careers, and 7th Grade Accelerated Science.

She was born April 3, 1952, in Los Angeles, California, but grew up in Torrance, California. She is married to Mr. Doug Watson. They have two sons named Lawrence, 15, and Zack, 13. She has a dog named Whitney, a cat named Hancock, and Hermy the crab. She enjoys sewing and spending time with her family.

Mrs. Watson's advice to the student is "Work hard and what you believe you can achieve." She plans to teach for several more years. by Jeremy

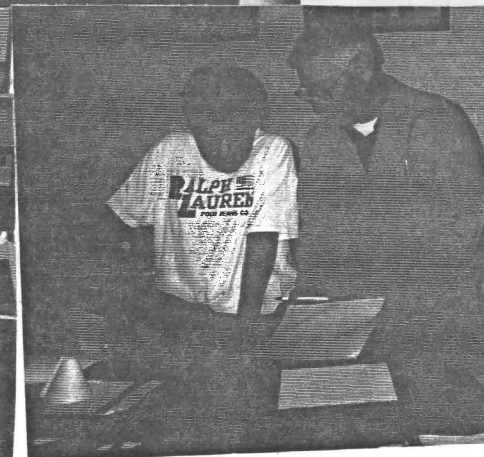

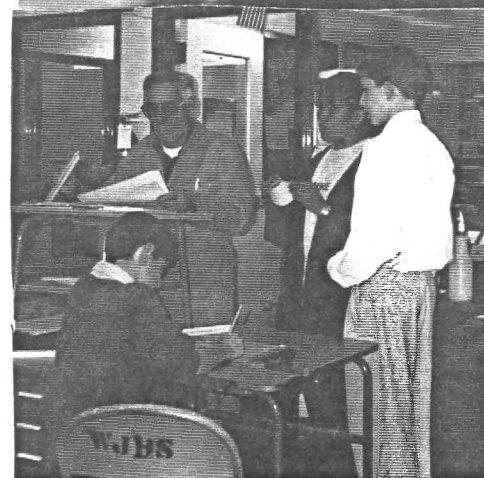

Sullenberger

Students, listen.

ANOTHER DEDICATEE IS...

MR. G

One of this year's dedicatees is Mr. Joe Gonzales. Mr. G. is retiring after 23 years of teaching. He was born and raised in Winslow. He went to Northern Arizona University after being in the military. Mr. G. taught special education when he first came back to teach. Now he has been teaching Foundations, 8th grade industrial arts, and 8th grade math. Mr. G. has also coached 8th grade football, wrestling, and track these many years, too.

Probably everybody wants to know why he is retiring. He's retiring to spend more time with his grandchildren and to work on his new house. Mr. G. is married and has three daughters and three granddaughters. Mr. G., we're all going to miss you here at the jr. high.

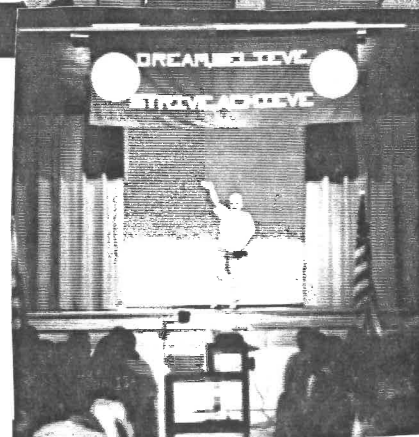

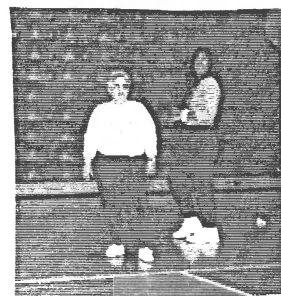

by Jeremy Sullenberger

ANOTHER DEDICATEE IS...

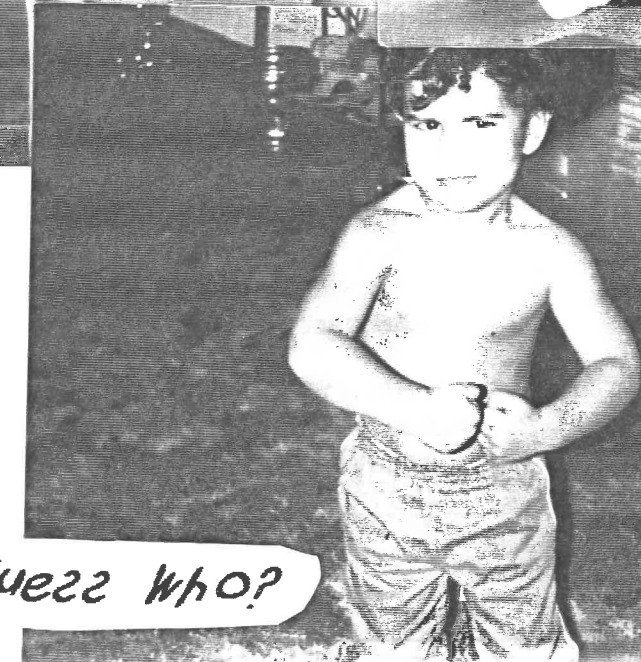

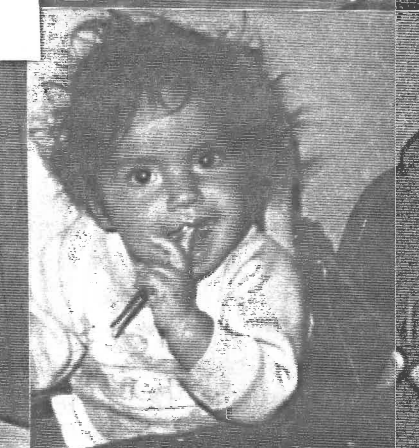

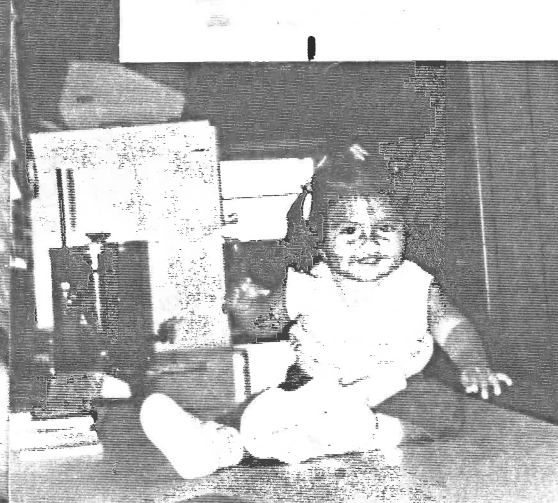

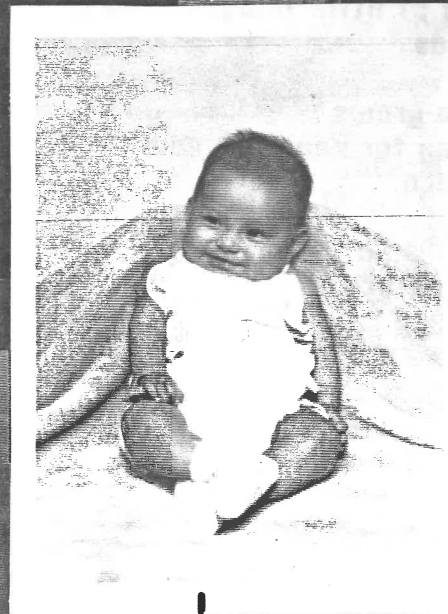

MRS. STEWART

One of this year's dedicatees is Mrs. Stewart. She was born in Eden, AZ. Throughout her life she has also lived in Florence, Coolidge, and then in Winslow. She started teaching P.E. at Winslow High School. Next she taught private tumbling and gymnastics. She was an instructor at N.P.C. for eight years. Then she substituted for 10 years in all areas. For the past 14 years, she has taught Health, Music, P.E., Science, Skills for Adolescents, and one year of English 8 at WJHS. She has also coached 7th, 8th, and 9th grade volleyball and 7th and 8th grade track. She earned her bachelor's and master's at NAU. She likes to play sports in her spare time. She is retiring this year and plans on traveling. Students have never seen her sad and will miss her cheerful smile.

Guess Who?

Unsaid Things

The hopes and fears
Of endless years
Buried beneath the painful stings
The sting and burns of unsaid things
The infinite number
Of dreams and wishes
All cast at targets
That each one misses
Away from the joy of little things
Embedded in mounds
Of unsaid things.
A spark and an idea grows
But is shunned away for none to know
The spark from which Imagination swings
Buried forever in unsaid things.
A dark well-kept and priceless secret
Hidden away by those who keep it;
Away from the pain exposure brings
Protected by layers of unsaid things.
Dreams and wishes, hopes and fears
Covered with dust of endless years
Well-protected, safe and warm,
Away from the pain of any harm
Away from the joy
That all things bring
Protected forever
By unsaid things.

Dark Night

As I sit on my couch watching TV
I have no idea someone's watching me.
As the lights start flickering and flashing
My heart feels as though it's getting a lashing.
Then it goes dark
All I can hear is my dog's bark.
I look to the door and notice it's open.
My throat feels as though it is chokin'.
As I peer farther I see a man
When I notice something in his hand.
Then I hear his arm lift.
I feel as though I'm frozen stiff.
As I go to cover my head,
I feel as though I'm already dead.
Then sounds the shot
In my chest the bullet is caught.
I am now in great pain.

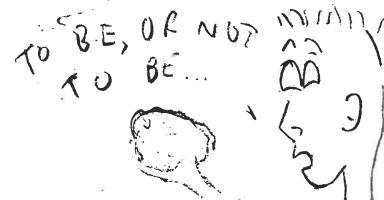

I feel as though I'll never be the same.
As I realize that I am dyin'
Like a miracle I hear a siren.
When I wake up in a hospital bed,
All I can do is thank God I'm not dead.

Life's like a sunset.
Many people get you down
But you come around.

There was a boy named Brady.
He had lots of friends in Haiti.
He called them up
And asked "What's up?"
And now he wants to date Katie.

Words

The words that you might say
Will catch up to you some way
And then you will say
"Words only cause dismay."
So now you are on your way
Regretting what you did say.

I Remember

When I looked in your eyes
I knew it was true.
My heart never lies.
I was in love with you.

As you stood there
Just looking at me,
My whole body melted
To the ground.

I remember you,
I remember the day,
I remember the place.
It is always on my mind.

You looked so good
In your shirt and jeans.
I remember that night
You were in my dream.

I wish I could be with you
Day after day
Because I love you more
Than words can ever say.

Love

It blossoms in the spring.
Everyone feels this thing.
It's as graceful and peaceful as a dove.
It's the feeling of love.
It comes ;then it goes for us and our foes.
But at least we can say
We felt it that day.
by Erica Armenta

Life is like a road.
It goes on, on and on.
It stops when you die.

To My Dearest Love
To my dearest love I know,
I've loved you through the years and so
Even when I thought you knew
All this time you've had no clue.
So I'm writing this to tell you now
How much I love you then and now.

Life's Monopoly.
If you land in a wrong spot
You go straight to jail.

Justin is fine
And, girl, he is mine.
You better stay
Far, far away
'Cause my love will stay
With him everyday
Always and forever.
It will wither never.
by Diana Walker

Mom

My mom is like medicine
She always makes me feel better
Even when I'm down or not feeling good
She is always there to make me smile
When I am sad.
But too bad this is the mother I never had
I can only picture her in my head.
Sometimes I can see her in my dreams.
Since she was taken away from me
I can only dream.
by Kim Flores

Once in My Life

Once in my life
I could tell all my secrets.

Once in my life
I trusted someone.

Once in my life
I was never sad.

Once in my life
The person I trusted died.

Once in my life
It was too late to say
Good-bye.

Once in my life
I was alone.

Once in my life
My brother had died.

by Laurel Johnson

Spirits guiding me through good and bad
Having deadly memories so sad
But why? Why me?
How could this be?
Knowing one day I would be glad.

Love is similar to a Rose. If you firmly hold on to it,
it may fall apart.
Love is similar to a Rose, like if you try to get too close so sudden you may get hurt.
Love is similar to a Rose, if you like it and treat it right, it will bloom just right.
Love is similar to a Rose, by being so gentle, so soft and very nice.
